This Month's Featured Manufacturer

FIREYE Flame Safeguard & Combustion Controls

Fireye Flame Monitoring

Fireye is a leading manufacturer of flame safeguard controls, process control products, combustion efficiency control, and burner control management systems for industrial and commercial applications.

Applications range from single-burner boilers and furnaces used in schools and hospitals, to multi-burner boilers used in power utilities, pulp and paper mills, petrochemical refineries, factories, and food processing plants.

Fireye efficiency products offer benefits such as fuel savings, emissions reduction, and enhanced operational capabilities.

Fireye's engineering staff is committed to quality products and solutions for flame safety, regularly evaluating and testing innovative ideas, and developing advances for the industry.
